

THE FOUR DAMES

Health • Wealth • Love • Purpose

Empowering your audience to create freedom in the life they love living!

Imagine...

Four strong, dynamic, successful women speaking together on one stage, delivering an experience to women audiences so personal, impactful, and so rich that it is forever remembered as the fulcrum point of life-changing decisions made on that very day, in that very room.

Four personalities, four stories with a whole lot of wisdom, fun, and focus. The Four Dames skillfully weave a message of empowerment that motivates women to rethink their lives by asking the question, “What would I truly love?” in four areas: health, wealth, love and purpose.

Pizazz to the Power of FOUR!

If you are looking for a keynote that commands the room, delivers star power plus a profound meaningful impact on women...if you want each individual to come away deeply touched with action steps to move forward in their lives...if this is the year you want to create a truly memorable, unforgettable experience for your group, then invite the Four Dames!

The Four Dames, experts in their focused topic, speak and teach as one voice, yet use fascinating personal examples that move women to laughter and tears.

Our goal is to create a deep, memorable experience that begins a journey of transformed thinking, which results in more freedom in the four domains of life:
